

Fund Managers Thoughts

The Capricorn SCI Equity Fund performed well in January remaining flat for the month while its SWIX benchmark declined -0.7%. The largest contributors to returns were Bidvest, Anglo American and Impala Platinum while our SA Inc. stocks also outperformed in the month. The hunt for the next SA scandal continued with Viceroy publishing a report on Capitec which led to the stock falling 25% with associated company, PSG Group, also taking some pain.

Post Cyril Ramaphosa's win in December, the Rand continued to strengthen (4% in January) with the net around Jacob Zuma closing in. The market seems to have started pricing in the leadership change although we believe there are significantly more profits left in the trade. Consumer sentiment is improving with SA's leading indicator at its best level since 2001. These green shoots are starting to show with the JSE General Retailers index outperforming in the month of January.

Positioning Our Portfolio

As the net around Jacob Zuma closes in, we believe that SA is on the brink of significant momentum in the equity market, similar to that experienced in Brazil (Bovespa +98% in 24 months post President Rousseff's impeachment). We continue to remain SA Inc. biased and believe the next wave in momentum for SA Inc. stocks will commence with the removal of Jacob Zuma with SA banks and retailers likely to benefit in this scenario.
