

Fund Managers Thoughts

Global trade tensions remain elevated with a tit-for-tat response from both the US and China. Consequently, Capricorn looks to take advantage of attractively priced ZAR hedges with growing earnings momentum. We believe Sappi, Mondi, BHP Billiton and Naspers are most attractive in the current environment. Although we remain positive on an SA Inc. recovery under the new leadership, we think SA Inc. may take some time to come back into favour and gather momentum. In our view, a second round of “Ramaphoria” is likely as Cyril consolidates further power ahead of national elections and proceeds with attracting further foreign investments into SA which will lead to sustainable job creation. We welcome Cyril’s success in attracting $34bn of investment and a better than expected outcome at the KZN & Gauteng provincial elections.

Positioning Our Portfolio

The Capricorn SCI Equity Fund outperformed the market in July. The largest detractors to performance were Naspers and Glencore. The banks and insurance sectors rallied in July along with our ZAR hedge stocks (British American Tobacco, Sappi, MTN and Mondi). Glencore were issued with a subpoena by the US Department of Justice which resulted in the company’s stock falling over 10%, negatively impacting our performance. Capricorn’s momentum investment style continues to favour markets and sectors with tailwinds and momentum. We remain bullish on Naspers due to its 40% plus earnings growth momentum together with management’s focus on unwinding the discount to Tencent while also dealing with its current weighting issue in the SA market. We favour the paper and commodities sector as China continues to roll out its One Belt One Road infrastructure plan.
